YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

You complete the details on the online application and are responsible for answering all questions honestly, completely and to the best of your knowledge. Failure to do so may lead to your insurance being invalid and claims may not be paid. If your insurance is invalid, you could also be liable for any third party costs in the event of an accident. You must provide an accurate assessment any values as insurers will make a proportionate reduction in claims settlement if the value insured is less than value of the bike.

We may also obtain information about you and all other people named on your policy from credit reference agencies to check credit status and identity. Any search will not affect your credit rating. You must read all insurance documents to ensure the cover meets your requirements; that details are correct; and that you can comply with all terms and conditions as failure could invalidate your policy. Please notify us of any concerns. Please refer to the claims conditions section in your policy wording for details on what to do in the event of a claim.

If more than 8 weeks from the date of your complaint has passed and you haven't received a final response, or you are dissatisfied with the final response you have received (at any stage of the process) you can refer your complaint to the financial ombudsman service (contact details are shown below).

The Financial Ombudsman Service,
Exchange Tower,
London,
E14 9SR.
Tel: 0300 123 9 123
Email: complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk

The above complaints procedure is in addition to your statutory rights as a consumer. For further information about your statutory rights contact your local Citizens Advice Bureau. If you have purchased the insurance policy online, you may also raise your complaint via the EU Online Dispute Resolution Portal at <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/>. This will forward your complaint to the correct Alternative Dispute Resolution scheme. For insurance complaints in the UK this is the Financial Ombudsman Service. However, this may be a slower route for handling your complaint than if you contact the Financial Ombudsman Service directly.

For complaints about the handling of a claim under sections 1, 2 or 3 of the policy

CANCELLATION

Your Cancellation Rights

If you decide that for any reason, this policy does not meet your insurance needs then please contact your agent within 14 days from the day of purchase or the day on which you receive your policy documentation, whichever is the later. On the condition that no claims have been made or are pending, your agent will then refund your premium.

If any gifts or promotional vouchers have been provided with Your policy, a refund will only be completed if these are returned with a signed letter of cancellation. If printable vouchers have been provided these must have not been redeemed. This does not affect Your statutory rights.

You can also cancel your policy at any time after the first 14 days from the start of this insurance or receipt of the policy documents, whichever the later. On the condition that no claims have been made or are pending, we will refund that part of the premium which applies to the remaining period of insurance, less an administration fee of up to £20.00 to reflect the costs of arranging and cancelling the policy

Please contact Pedalsure if you wish to cancel your policy. Their contact details are shown on page 2 of the Policy Document.

The Insurers' Cancellation Rights

Insurers shall not be bound to accept renewal of any insurance and may at any time cancel any insurance document by giving 14 days' notice in writing where there is a valid reason for doing so. A cancellation letter will be sent to you at your last known address. Valid reasons may include but are not limited to:

- a) Where We or Insurers reasonably suspect fraud
- b) Where you do not pay the premium
- c) Where you use threatening and abusive behavior towards us or Insurers
- d) Where you do not comply with policy terms and conditions
- e) Where you have not taken reasonable care to provide accurate and complete answers to the questions We asked.

If your policy and/or any additional covers are cancelled you will receive a refund of any premiums you have paid for the cancelled cover, less a proportionate deduction for the time that Insurers have provided cover.

Where investigations provide evidence of fraud or misrepresentation, Insurers may cancel the policy immediately and backdate the cancellation to the date of the fraud or the date when you provided us with incomplete or inaccurate information. This may result in your policy being cancelled from the date you originally took it out and Insurers will be entitled to keep the premium.

If your policy is cancelled because of fraud or misrepresentation, this may affect your eligibility for insurance with us, as well as other insurers, in the future.

PREVENTION OF INSURANCE FRAUD

To protect our customers and guard against insurance fraud, we will actively monitor the information entered on our website and pass on intelligence of suspected fraud to other parties such as the Insurance Fraud Bureau.
